

Water Engineering Technology Student (2 positions) (Temporary, Full-Time – early May to late August)

Located in the south-central region of B.C., the Regional District of Okanagan-Similkameen covers an area over 10,400 km² and is renowned for its orchards, vineyards and golf courses, as well as its widely varied landscape including deserts, mountains and valleys, and pristine lakes. Outdoor recreational opportunities are endless throughout the Regional District and residents enjoy a wide array of activities all year long.

The Regional District of Okanagan-Similkameen is currently recruiting for two students to join the Utilities team for a four-month work term.

Working within the Utilities Department, the students may be tasked with a variety of duties including:

- Assisting the water and wastewater operations with manual labour and maintenance activities
- Organizing available service connection data and performing onsite audits of water and wastewater systems to verify customer user types
- Assisting with asset management data collection and input for water and wastewater systems
- Locating and recording locations of valves, hydrants, piping, and manholes
- Taking field note information and completing a daily diary and
- Performing other related tasks

QUALIFICATIONS:

- “Student” means an employee who is attending school, college, or university who has just completed their studies or intends to return to school, college, or university in the subsequent academic year.
- Completion of 1st year in a Water Engineering Technology program or related field.
- Ability to understand and execute oral and written instructions.
- Experience working with the public and providing customer service.
- Ability to work independently and efficiently with limited supervision.
- Ability to perform the duties of the position and work indoors in an office setting or outdoors, possibly in extreme weather conditions.
- Ability to communicate in a courteous and tactful manner.
- Demonstrated computer skills in Microsoft Office Suite (Outlook, Word, and Excel).
- Valid First Aid Certificate (OFA Level 1) or an ability and willingness to obtain one.
- Valid BC Driver’s License.

This assignment is a four-month term from May to August 2023. The is a BCGEU bargaining unit position with an hourly wage of $20.00 per hour plus 15% in lieu of all benefits (total hourly wage is $23.00 per hour).

Qualified individuals are invited to submit their application in PDF format quoting Competition No. 23-10E by 4:00 pm, Sunday, March 12, 2023 to:

Human Resources Department
Email: hr@rdos.bc.ca

We thank all applicants for their interest, however, only those candidates selected for further consideration will be contacted. This position is only open to those legally entitled to work in Canada.